Council's Role in Strategic Planning

Councillors need to see the big picture. Take the EOEP's upcoming Council's Role in Strategic Planning course to learn how!

The role of elected officials is to lead. They determine the long-term priorities of their municipality. Doing this effectively takes skill, and an understanding of how to separate the day-to-day from the big picture. Council's Role in Strategic Planning will explain the role that strategic planning plays in building municipal sustainability, how councils can work together to set realistic goals, the basic elements of a strategic plan, how to set and assess strategic priorities, the roles of council and staff in strategic planning, and other information that will support you and your municipality in planning strategically for the short- and long-term.

Course details are as follows:

When: Friday, May 25, 2018
Where: RMA Office
2510 Sparrow Drive, Nisku, AB
Cost: $340 plus GST
Register: Visit EOEP.ca

Regional Partnerships and Collaboration

Now more than ever, working together means working effectively. Take the EOEP's upcoming Regional Partnerships and Collaboration course to learn how your council can form strong relationships with your municipal neighbours!

In life, and in the municipal world, working with your neighbours is not always easy. If done right, it can provide major benefits. The EOEP's Regional Partnerships and Collaboration course will provide participants with an opportunity to learn about approaches municipalities can take to build meaningful partnerships with their municipal neighbours in a way that is fair and mutually beneficial.

In addition to intermunicipal collaboration, the course will examine ways that municipalities can work with organizations within their community to provide strong and sustainable services.

Course details are as follows:

When: Monday, June 11, 2018
Where: Camrose Resort Casino – Regal Ballroom
 3201 48 Ave, Camrose, AB
