Disaster Forum 2018 Incident Command System Workshops

The Disaster Forum is a one-day workshop in Edmonton on October 23rd

In an emergency, protecting people, the environment, and property is an important responsibility. One of the ways that emergencies are managed is through an Incident Command System (ICS). The Disaster Forum 2018 offers an opportunity for emergency managers to improve their ICS skills and feel confident in responding effectively to future emergencies.

The Disaster Forum is an interactive one-day workshop in Edmonton on October 23 and Saskatoon on October 25.
