Provide Your Input on the Draft Conservation Agreement for Woodland Caribou

Government of Alberta seeking feedback on Conservation Agreement for Woodland Caribou (Canada- Alberta) draft

The Government of Alberta is seeking feedback on a draft conservation agreement between Alberta and the Government of Canada for woodland caribou. The draft outlines actions that will be taken over the next five years to support conservation and the recovery of the caribou population. The overarching goal of the draft agreement is to work towards achieving and maintaining self-sustaining caribou populations over the long term in line with the federal recovery strategies and A Woodland Caribou Policy for Alberta.
