Healthy Futures Webinar Recording Now Available

RMA, AUMA, and the Alberta Policy Coalition for Chronic Disease Prevention \(APCCP\) are pleased to host a series of educational webinars on using policy to support community health and well-being.

The second webinar in the series, Health in All Policies: The Importance and Impact of a Health-in-All-Policies Approach for Municipalities, took place on Friday, March 13, with the following speakers:

- Kayla Atkey, Alberta Policy Coalition for Chronic Disease Prevention
- Angeline Webb, Alberta Public Health Association
- Michelle Kilborn, Alberta Public Health Association

The webinar recording and slides are now available. If you missed the first webinar, Smoking and Vaping: Policy Options for Municipalities, you can access the recording, slides, and materials here.

To help us improve future webinars and understand how we can support communities in policy development, please take this short, four-question survey.

You can also register for the next two webinars in the Healthy Futures series:

- Walk, Bike, Wheel: Helping Communities Thrive Through Active Travel Policy, takes place from 2:00 to 3:00 pm on Wednesday, April 8 (click on the link to register).
- Food Matters! How Municipalities Can Build a Stronger Community Through Healthier Eating Environments, takes place on Friday, May 8, from 2:00 to 3:00 pm (click on the link to register).
