Complete the Municipal Eco Toolkit Survey

The Miistakis Institute is seeking input on the creation of an online toolkit that provides municipalities with tools for maintaining natural systems.

The Miistakis Institute is creating an online toolkit for municipalities that provides descriptions of available municipal management tools for maintaining natural systems and their associated benefits. The Miistakis Institute has categorized municipal tools for maintaining natural systems into the following five categories:

- Protection
- Planning
- Practices
- Perceptions
- Persuasion

The Miistakis Institute is seeking feedback from municipalities to help refine this toolkit by providing input on the types of tools to include and which are most valuable for municipalities to maintain natural systems.

Complete the Municipal Eco Toolkit Survey here. The deadline to complete this survey is May 14, 2020.
