The 2021 Lieutenant Governor's Leadership for Active Communities Awards are Open

The Alberta Recreation and Parks Association is excited to announce the opening of this year's application period

The Alberta Recreation and Parks Association (ARPA) is inviting Albertans to nominate a leader in their community for the Lieutenant Governor's Leadership for Active Communities Award. This award recognizes the legacy of the Honourable Norman Kwong's contributions to the Alberta Active Communities initiative.

This province-wide awards program recognizes the achievements of teams and individuals who:

- ◆ Demonstrate the very best of active community leadership,
- ◆ Engage citizens in planning,
- ◆ Use leadership to get people more active more often,
- ◆ Work to create places, spaces, and opportunities for people to be active and engage in their communities, using recreation as a catalyst.

Any Alberta resident, group, or corporate entity that has contributed to building a more active community is eligible for nomination. The nomination deadline is May 31, 2021.

Visit ARPA's website to find out how to nominate someone in your community.
